Case No. 2:15-cv-01328-JCM-CWH

Hon. Judge James C. Mahan
Magistrate Judge Carl W. Hoffman

[PROPOSED] ORDER

Having read and considered Plaintiffs' motion for final default judgment as to liability and order for a permanent injunction, Plaintiffs' motion is hereby GRANTED.

It is herewith ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED that:

A. U.S. Patent Nos. 8,607,804, 8,651,118, and 8,733,374 are valid and enforceable;

B. The making, having made, using, causing to be used, selling, causing to be sold, offering for sale, and causing to be offered for sale in the United States, and importing and causing to be imported into the United States, of Defendant's accused products (including the "Fineness" hair-curling device), infringes at least one claim of the '804 patent;

C. The making, having made, using, causing to be used, selling, causing to be sold, offering for sale, and causing to be offered for sale in the United States, and importing and causing to be imported into the United States, of Defendant's accused products (including the "Fineness" hair-curling device), infringes at least one claim of the '118 patent;

1           D.     The making, having made, using, causing to be used, selling, causing to be sold,
2 offering for sale, and causing to be offered for sale in the United States, and importing and
3 causing to be imported into the United States, of Defendant's accused products (including the
4 "Fineness" hair-curling device), infringes at least one claim of the '374 patent;

5           E.     The Defendant in default has infringed the '804, '118, and '374 patents;

6           F.     The Defendant in default, as well as those persons and entities in active concert
7 with it who have notice of this Order, are herewith permanently enjoined from committing any
8 act that infringes or causes or induces infringement of any claim of the '804, '118, or '374
9 patents, including but not limited to making, having made, using, causing to be used, selling,
10 causing to be sold, offering for sale, and causing to be offered for sale in the United States, and
11 importing and causing to be imported in the United States, any product that infringes any claim
12 of the '804, '118, or '374 patents, including but not limited to the "Fineness" hair-curling device
13 and products not colorably different;

14           G.     U.S. Patent No. D696,456 is valid and enforceable;

15           H.     The making, having made, using, causing to be used, selling, causing to be sold,
16 offering for sale, and causing to be offered for sale in the United States, and importing and
17 causing to be imported into the United States, of Defendant's accused products (including the 18 "Fineness" hair-curling device), infringes the '456 patent;

19           I.     The Defendant in default by its actions has infringed the '456 patent;

20           J.     The Defendant in default, as well as those persons and entities in active concert
21 with it who have notice of this Order, are herewith permanently enjoined from committing any
22 act that infringes or causes or induces infringement of any claim of the '456 patent, including but
23 not limited to making, having made, using, causing to be used, selling, causing to be sold,
24 offering for sale, and causing to be offered for sale in the United States, and importing and
25 causing to be imported in the United States, any product that infringes any claim of the '456
26 patent, including but not limited to the "Fineness" hair-curling device and products not colorably
27 different;

Q. CBP may, at its discretion and pursuant to the procedures it establishes, require persons seeking to import automatic hair-curling devices of the type described and depicted herein, and components thereof, that are potentially subject to this Order to certify that they are familiar with the terms of this Order, that they have made appropriate inquiry, and thereupon state that, to the best of their knowledge and belief, the products being imported are not prohibited under the preceding paragraphs of this Order. At its discretion, CBP may require persons who have provided the certification described in this paragraph to furnish such records or analyses as are necessary to substantiate this certification.

R. Plaintiffs are hereby given leave to take discovery under Fed. R. Civ. P. 26, 30, 33, 34, and 36 to determine the amount of damages, if any.

The only remaining issue before this Court concerns the amount of damages to be awarded to Plaintiffs. A hearing will be held on 1/20/2016 at 11:00 am in Las Vegas, NV at the United States Courthouse at 333 S. Las Vegas Blvd., Las Vegas, NV 89101, to determine what, if any, damages including lost profits and/or reasonable royalty to impose on the Defendant in default for its infringement of the '804, '118, '374, '456 patents and Plaintiffs'
